La Bella's History

La Bella Pizza opened October 1955 by an Italian couple from New York, Tony and Kitty Raso. The name "La Bella" means "the beautiful" and when a patio garden was added, our name was complete.

In the beginning, Kitty would serve while Tony prepared the meals with their son little Joey running around with a broom. As business grew they hired a dishwasher, and to keep him busy, they introduced delivering pizzas to Chula Vista in 1957.

In 1959, a second son, Tony Jr., was born, and then the back dining room replaced the patio and the upstairs was made into banquet rooms.

In 1977, Tony known by all as "Papa" promoted a young man, Stan Dale, as the manager; together they enlarged and modernized the kitchen.

In 1992, all the dining rooms were remodeled and a sports bar was added. Our history is filled with stories of couples holding their wedding reception at La Bella only to have the children grow and have their own reception here.

Sadly, Papa passed away June 27th 2005, after overseeing operations for fifty years. It is our dedication to continue in the spirit of Papa's guidance.

July 2007, next door we added a level of family fun & group dining experience, at the La Bella Café & Games.

At age 92 Kitty Raso would speak of her heart longing to be with Papa Tony again, on the evening of October 18, 2010 she peacefully passed away in her sleep.

Kitty's years of leadership in the south-bay charities will not be forgotten, we will continue to be a proud part of your community in the future, through donations & event sponsorships at The La Bella Cafe & Games.

The Cornerstone of our 57 year success has been providing a hearty Italian meal in a family atmosphere at down-to-earth prices.

Joe, Tony, Stan & The Crew Sept 28th 2012
