

La Bella's History

La Bella Pizza was opened October 1955 by an Italian couple from New York, Tony Raso a dairy farmer from the Catskills & Kitty Palmieri a Manhattan waitress. The name "La Bella" means "the beautiful" and when the patio garden opened, our name was complete.

In the beginning, Kitty would serve while Tony prepared the meals, as the business grew, their son, lil Joey became the dishwasher, to keep him busy, they introduced delivering pizzas to Chula Vista in the early 60's.

In 1959, their second son, Tony Jr., was born, and then the patio was replaced with a dining room and the upstairs was made into banquet rooms.

In 1977, Tony known by all as "Papa" promoted a young man, Stan Dale, as the manager; together they enlarged and modernized the kitchen.

In 1992, all the dining rooms were remodeled and a sports bar was added.

La Bella's history is filled with stories of couples holding their wedding reception here only to have the children grow and have their own reception here.

Papa ran operations for fifty years, after he passing in 2005 our dedication to continue in the spirit of Papa's guidance, we opened the La Bella Café & Games next door with an added level of family fun & group dining experience..

At age 92 Kitty Raso would often speak of her heart longing to be with Papa Tony again, on the evening of October 18, 2010 she peacefully passed away in her sleep. Kitty's years of leadership in the south-bay charities will not be forgotten, we will continue to be a proud part of your community in the future, through donations & event sponsorships at The La Bella Cafe & Games.

The Cornerstone of our 62 year success has been providing a hearty Italian meal in a family atmosphere at a reasonable price. Welcome to where people meet to Eat in the south bay
